Dear Pete:

DOUGLAS L. THOMPSON
Chairman
378 Graham Road
Lander, WY 82520

On January 5, 2016, the Board of Fremont County Commissioners voted unanimously to participate in the Wyoming Public Lands Initiative. We see this as an opportunity to develop and propose an agreeable resolution to the pending status of our 5 Wilderness Study Areas. Further, we have several other landscape issues, one being an exchange, which have arisen within the past two years, the resolution of which can possibly be found in the WPLI.

TRAVIS BECKER
Vice-Chairman
525 Westchester Circle
Riverton, WY 82501

We are planning on forming an advisory committee, but will wait until after the workshop scheduled for January 26th. The proper formation of this committee, we believe, will be essential to the success of our local efforts, as well as statewide.

LARRY ALLEN
3925 Badwater Drive
Lysite, WY 82642

Because of the numerous planning efforts, past and present, we believe Fremont County has many positive working relationships with the suggested stakeholder groups. This should help us hit the ground running. We plan on entertaining many proposals from many constituents, and envision an open and fair forum to develop a final recommendation.

RAY PRICE
417 S 2nd Street
Lander, WY 82520

As to working with other counties, we are aware of some multi-county proposals already being discussed, and are therefore ready to form constructive coalitions to consider these cooperatively.

ANDREA CLIFFORD
P O Box 2022
Riverton, WY 82501

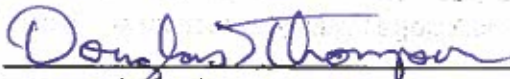

Our goal is to have a written, documented proposal within the envisioned time frame, but will not rush the process at the expense of a good product. Our participation is conditioned on the tenet that if a change is made to our proposal or any multi-county proposal after leaving our local forums; we will be given the opportunity to consider and agree to the change, or to pull our proposal(s). That being said we look forward to a successful initiative and a possible model for the future of Wyoming and other states.

JULIE A. FREESE
County Clerk
and
Clerk of the Board

Sincerely,

MARGY IRVINE
Deputy Clerk
